Points from Learning Lunches

Getting Barnsley to a healthy weight

Lorraine Lawson gave an insight into future levels of obesity in Barnsley if action is not taken now to prevent this. Car dependency and less active lifestyles were cited as major contributors to the epidemic.

- Over 1/3 of 10 to 11 year olds in Barnsley are obese.
- 40% of adults over 50 are obese.
- Barnsley is an obesity blackspot – it is 8th highest in the country.

The following points were made in the discussion that followed:

- At ante-natal clinics pregnant women are getting heavier and some rely on take-away food.
- Eating healthily can seem boring because it lacks flavour.
- At Advanced Learning Centres it is important cycle and walking access is built into the design.
- It can be stressful to commute by bike due to motorist behaviour.
- Other countries have adopted a different approach to infrastructure. In some Scandinavian countries people (walkers and cyclists) are given priority and the car comes second.
- The rising cost of food and the expense of eating fresher food was seen as barrier to low income households.
- Methods of limiting the amount of fast food outlets near schools were debated. New powers for planning would be required and is currently being explored.
- BMI 25-30 was seen as a risk area that needs more attention.

Barnsley Local Information System

Liz Pitt demonstrated how the new Local Information System can be used. It is available online now at:

http://www.barnsley.gov.uk/bguk/Economic_Finance/Central%20Research%20Team/Local%20Information%20System

It is a systematic approach to collating, analysing and presenting the following information:

- key facts (e.g. demographics)
- indicators (e.g. achievement of five or more GCSEs at grades A* to C)
- profiles, and;
- research reports

The following points were made by attendees:

- Will public access be recorded?
- Is it easy to access?
- It was designed as an “invest to save “ resource as information requests were taking up time.
- Is it easy to find from search engines like google?

Barnsley Town Centre Business Survey

A Town Centre Survey of 106 businesses was commissioned from Barnsley and Rotherham Chamber.

Key results were:

- The number one concern had been the number of parking spaces.
- Footfall was the second biggest key factor.
- There are concerns over town centre marketing and promotion. Possible solutions put forward were the development of a shopping and leisure guide; a 'shop locally' campaign and a Town Centre website.
- Cleanliness was another major issue. They felt litter was a major problem, particularly from takeaways together with a lack of public litter bins. There was also uncertainty over when the market development would happen.
- Bite size training around customer care would be welcomed by the hospitality industry.

Positive results include:

- Good communication between shops.
- Footfall is generally good and the town centre was generally safe. The lighting and the atmosphere of the town hall was also praised.
